DATES: 6/11 SEPTEMBER 2015

VENUE: Portici (Napoli) Italy

ID NUMBER: 2015-1-IT03-KA105-005683

ACTIVITY: The study visit involves 9 countries and 24 social educator/youth workers/volunteers dealing with young with fewer opportunities and will focus on the action-reaction of cause-effect of MEDA youth immigration. Italian staff (specialized in minors/young immigrants care) will show some of the effects of this phenomenon to give different points of view to MEDA countries for working on the causes. The study visit aims to offering to MEDA countries a grassroots information to better understand the youth needs so to develop and plan a better answer to the local youth demands by giving them the added tools to improve their education and social cohesion process in their country of origin and new tools to the right to choose a conscious migration. On the other hand, MEDA will offer to EU consortium the intercultural tools for a better understanding of the culture of origin and to improve the level of key competences and skills of EU youth workers to promote intercultural and interreligious dialogue, social inclusion and solidarity for MEDA youth immigrants in the EU countries. Non formal learning activities such as: meeting with young immigrants (boys and girls); round tables with the expertise in the immigration youth field/Italian system, will facilitate participants learning process to get a different eye on the youth problems in the countries of origin.

OBJECTIVES: The objective and the priorities of this study visit is to foster quality improvements in the youth work, in particular through enhanced cooperation between organizations in the youth field and/or other stakeholders; to stimulate and encourage mutual cultural understanding between young people within the Euro-Mediterranean region; to fight racial/religious stereotypes and prejudices and to promote active citizenship among young people and enhance their sense of solidarity.
